

Supplement Health Insurance Seniors

Average Monthly Hotline	88,073	$110/M
Total File	1,450,646	$110/M

Reach out to a response group of consumers who have indicated their current interest in locating either basic or supplemental health insurance options within the Medicare insurance markets.

These Internet generated first party hotline leads have indicated a need for discounted health, medical, and wellness items, signifying that they are either uninsured or searching for a new healthcare provider.

By voluntarily opting in through this process, these consumers have displayed a willingness to explore discounted mail-order health and wellness items, supplements, creams, and other medical products and services, such as walk-in bathtubs. Moreover, they are likely to react positively to continuity programs, insurance, stored credit merchandise catalog offers, and other related promotions.

This audience is particularly well-suited for shopping clubs, discount pharmacy cards, health and medical-related catalogs and magazines, life insurance, secured and subprime credit, Internet, legal and financial services, health insurance, home equity loans, and money-making opportunities.
